

29 time award winner!

Special Thanksgiving
Supplement inside!

Alaska's Largest Independent
Native-Owned & Operated Newspaper!

PRESORTED
STANDARD
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
BETHEL, ALASKA
PERMIT NO. 6

The Delta Discovery

Volume 9, Issue 47
Wednesday
November 22, 2006

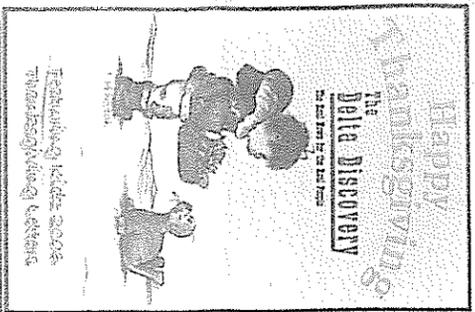

“Real news for the Real People.”
www.deltadiscovery.com

FREE in 50¢
Villages

Serving Bethel and the villages of the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta

Proposed 350
Mile Power
Line to Supply Energy to Donlin Creek

page 11

Kids
Thanksgiving
Letters, Poetry, & Stories

See insert

Open Water on Rivers Claim
Two Lives

page 7

Discover in this issue:

- From the Editor..... 3
- Weather..... 3
- Bethel News..... 4
- Village Telegraph..... 5
- Opinion/Letters..... 6
- Delta Lifestyles..... 8
- In Our Native Land..... 9
- Lamp Unto My Feet..... 14
- Delta Sports Week..... 15
- Cop Shop..... 16
- Classifieds..... 17

Recycle!

photo by Greg Lincoln

David Stovner provides a valuable service by working at the Bethel Recycling Center as the new Solid Waste Coordinator - helping to keep recyclable materials such as aluminum, paper, and plastics out of the landfill and making sure they are sent to recycling plants.

For story and photos see page 10

The Delta Discovery • P.O. Box 1028 Bethel, AK 99559 • (907)543-4113 • (fax) 543-4118 • realnews@deltadiscovery.com